LIVING IDEAS IN AMERICA

edited with introduction and commentary by Henry Steele Commager
(New, Enlarged Edition)

A collection of over 200 excerpts from letters, speeches, historical documents, essays, fiction, memoirs and poems ... an anthology of American ideas and institutions. 896 pages, Bibliography, Index.
(July) CN 111 $3.95

LEADERS OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

by J. M. Thompson

Eleven brilliant studies of men involved in the overwhelming experience of the French Revolution showing what they did and what they thought. The eleven chosen for study are: Sieyès, Mirabeau, Lafayette, Brissot, Louvet, Danton, Fabre D'Églantine, Marat, Saint Just, Robespierre and Dumouriez. 288 pages, Illustrated, Index.
(August) CN 112 $1.75

THE RISE OF URBAN AMERICA

by Constance McLaughlin Green

"An illuminating study that highlights the main developments in the rise of urban America. The book, written in a spritely style, provides deep insights into the whys and wherefores of American urban growth." --- Wyatt W. Belcher, Journal of American History. 224 pages, Bibliography, Index.
(August) CN 113 $1.45

A SERBIAN VILLAGE: Social and Cultural Change in a Yugoslav Community

by Joel Martin Halpern
(Revised Edition)

"An absorbing and significant study of cultural change. The historian will find this book a mine of valuable information." --- L. S. Stavrianos, The Annals. "An extremely able cultural and anthropological study." --- Foreign Affairs. 384 pages, Illustrated with photographs and drawings, Tables, Glossary, Bibliography, Index.
(September) CN 114 $2.25

INDIAN VILLAGE

by S. C. Dube

"The material has been well integrated by the author, who exploits to the full his advantages as a man of the country to gain that kind of information and insight usually denied to the Western sociologist in India." --- The Times (London) Literary Supplement. 258 pages, Illustrated, Figures, Bibliography, Glossary, Index.
(September) CN 115 $1.95

THE END OF EUROPEAN PRIMACY, 1871 - 1945

by J. R. Western

"Mid-19th-century liberalism, the effects of the unification of Germany, the impact on Europe of Slav nationalism, the Naval Race, the Great War, the Russian Revolution, the wasted peace, the rise of the Dictators---and their fall---all are examined here, judiciously, sympathetically, with high intelligence and perception, with urbanity and with humour." --- Books and Bookmen. 592 pages, Illustrated, Maps, Bibliography, Index.
(October) CN 116 $2.95

THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE NEGRO AMERICAN
by Leonard Broom and Norval Glenn

"Covers the changes that have taken place in the status of the American Negro from slavery until today; analyzes the present position of the Negro in the areas of education, occupation and income, business and the professions; describes the demographic characteristics of the Negro population and suggests some future perspectives ... a very useful book." --- Paul Jacobs, Book Week. 224 pages, Figures, Tables, Notes, Index.

(October) CN 117 $1.60

YOUTH AND THE HAZARDS OF AFFLUENCE:

The High School and College Years

by Graham B. Blaine, Jr.

"Graham Blaine has addressed himself to stinging hot topics and has not sidestepped or equivocated. I hope that his book will be widely read by those who are concerned with youth in our affluent society, even by the young themselves." --- Carl Binger, M.D.

160 pages, Index. (November) CN 118 $1.45

New Council on Foreign Relations Books

THE ARTILLERY OF THE PRESS:

Its Influence on American Foreign Policy

by James Reston

James Reston examines the democratic dilemma which arises from the competing needs of the citizen to be well informed and of the government official to be able to function discreetly. More specifically, he discusses the legitimate, constant, and unequal conflict between the men who make and the men who report the news. 128 pages

(April) CN 407 $1.95

U.S. TRADE POLICY:

New Legislation for the Next Round

by John W. Evans

John Evans draws on 25 years of government experience dealing with foreign trade matters in answering questions which arise as the Kennedy Round draws to a close. Should it be extended? Should the President cut tariffs even more than in the past? And does he need powers to do other things as well? The book's conclusions take the form of a series of specific proposals for what this country should do immediately and in the course of the next few years. 128 pages.

(May) CN 408 $2.45

TITO'S SEPARATE ROAD:

America and Yugoslavia in World Politics

by John C. Campbell

Yugoslavia has been involved in many great issues of the times: the cold war, the growth of national communism, the Soviet-Chinese conflict, the rise of Neutralism and the future shape of Europe. This book, by a writer with years of government experience in foreign affairs, describes the course of Yugoslav-U.S. relations, drawing conclusions and making proposals for the future. 150 pages.

FROM ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC:

A New Interocean Canal

by Immanuel J. Klette

The author, who knows the area well, carefully examines the major problems in building a sea-level canal in the light of both the lessons to be learned from the history of the Panama canal and the present situation with its complexities and instabilities. 156 pages.
